

SEIMINEÁR GRÉASÁIN WEBINAR

New Opportunities for Seafood Producers

Introduction by Chairperson

Marcus Ó Conaire (Údarás na Gaeltachta & Access2Sea Project, <http://access2sea.eu/>)

AquaVitae and InEVal projects: New Value Chains in Aquaculture

Dr Colin Hannon (Research Fellow at the Marine & Freshwater Research Centre, GMIT Galway Campus)

11.00 –12.30

Dé Luain 21 Meán Fómhair 2020

Making Aquaculture a Breizh: Aquaculture as tourism, a Breton perspective

Aurora Coppens (Investir en Finistère, Brest, Brittany), Pierre Roudaut (Technopole de Quimper-Cornouaille, Brittany)

An Overview of the Finfish Industry: Opportunities and Challenges

Catherine McManus (Mowi Seafoods Ireland)

Fáilte roimh chách!

A PRODUCER'S PERSPECTIVE: Mechanisms for getting through the crisis-induced market collapse: What's out there for farmers and fishers?

Michael Mulloy (Irish Farmers' Association Chairman for Aquaculture and Blackshell Farm)

Planning for Growth at a Local Level: a Mayo planning perspective

Michael O'Boyle (Head of Marine Development, Mayo County Council)

This webinar is hosted by Údarás na Gaeltachta and WestBIC as part of Access2Sea, an INTERREG Atlantic Area European Project on Aquaculture looking at new, sustainable ways to improve access to the Atlantic shore for Aquaculture SMEs

Registration: <https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/access2sea-new-opportunities-for-seafood-producers-tickets-120219177797>

#Access2Sea #Access2SeaProject

This event is being held as part of Mayo Ideas Week 2020.

For a full schedule of events, see www.mayoideasweek.ie & #MayoIdeasWeek

Údarás na Gaeltachta